ENDORSED BY ILM

The Institute of Leadership & Management (ILM) was formed in 2001 by the merger of NEBS Management and the Institute of Supervision and Management, and is part of the City & Guilds Group, the UK's largest vocational awarding body.

ILM is responsible for the majority of leadership and management qualifications awarded in the UK outside the HE sector. Currently, around 90,000 candidates per year register for ILM qualifications, which account for well over half of all qualification-based management training undertaken in the UK, at all levels. ILM has a growing membership of around 30,000 including both professional members and studying members.

Noble Manhattan Coaching could not have chosen a better organisation to endorse and accredit its programmes. Recognised and respected within the business world employers will appreciate the high standards demanded by such an organisation and know the value of any course endorsed or accredited by them. For clarification, endorsement is attributed to courses that are not specifically for use within a 'business or corporate' environment, such as our Practitioner Coach courses. However, it still represents an equal standard of quality training.

ACCREDITED BY THE INTERNATIONAL AUTHORITY FOR PROFESSIONAL COACHING & MENTORING

An International Accreditation Body for Coaches and Coach Training Providers currently with memberships in 102 countries.

The IAPC&M facilitates access to quality accreditation for coaches worldwide, contributes to the quality of accreditation internationally and ensures the availability of a high standard of coach training.

Quality control of coaching and coach training is a key element in this process. All of the companies listed by the IAPC&M have to go through a very thorough and exacting process and have had to prove with evidence their ongoing commitment to coaching, coach training and their students.

This rigorous process is one that ensures the acceptance only of companies that have the highest standards. Noble Manhattan Coaching Ltd has its courses accredited by the IAPC&M and is proud to hold the highest level of accreditation rating.

The International Coaching Federation (ICF) is the leading global organization for coaches and coaching. ICF is dedicated to advancing the coaching profession by setting high standards, providing independent certification and building a worldwide network of trained coaching professionals.

Noble Manhattan’s Practitioner Coach Diploma program is accredited by ICF CCE. Students who complete our Continuing Coach Education (CCE) program will be able to use these credits toward the renewal requirements of an International Coaching Federation (ICF) credential.
